ORDER OF BURIAL SERVICE

I. RECEPTION OF THE BODY FOR SERVICE

V The Lord be with you

R. And also with you

LET US PRAY

With faith in Jesus Christ we receive the body of our beloved ELDER EMMANUEL NWACHUKWU NWOSU for burial. Let us pray with confidence in God, the giver of life, that He may make His perpetual light shine on His servant that he may be enabled to share the life of his saints, through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

Minister: Heavenly Father, you have the power over death and you have given us victory through the resurrection of your son Jesus Christ; may your Holy Spirit remind us daily of our inheritance in your heavenly kingdom, so that we may not be overcome by the world and miss our fellowship with you in heaven but keep our faith constant in your son, who is the resurrection and life, through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour.

All: Amen

Minister: I have set God always before me: for He is on my right hand therefore I shall not fail.

All: Wherefore my heart was glad, and my soul rejoiced: my flesh also shall rest in hope.

Minister: You shall not leave my soul in hell: neither shall you suffer your holy one to see corruption.

All: You shall show me the path of life, in your presence is the fullness of joy: and at your right hand is pleasure forever more.

the world is given; May we go where he is gone, Rest and reign with him to heaven. Alleluia!

3. SENTENCES

(I) I am the resurrection and the life,
says the Lord, he that believeth in me,
though he was dead, yet shall he live, and whosoever lives and believeth in me shall never die. (John 11 : 25 – 26)

(ii). The eternal God is your refuge and underneath are the everlasting arms.
(Deut.33:27)

(iii) They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the sun light on them nor any heat (Rev. 7:16)

(iv) Whether we live unto the Lord, and whether we die, we die unto the Lord.
Whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's for to this end; Christ both died
and rose, and lives that he might be Lord

9. ANNOUNCEMENT

IO. HYMN FOR SERMON SS&S 798

1. Fading away like the stars of the morning, Losing their light in the glorious sun
Thus would we pass from the earth and its toiling
Only remembered by what we have done.

*Only remembered, Only remembered,
Only remembered by what we have done,
Thus would we pass from the earth and its toiling,
Only remembered by what we have done.*

2. Shall we be missed, though by other succeeded, Reaping the fields we in springtime have sown, Yes, but the sowers must pass from their labours
Ever remembered by what they have done

3. Only the truth that in life we have spoken, Only the seed that on earth we have sown: These shall pass onward when we are forgotten, Fruits of the harvest and what we have done.

4. Oh, when the Saviour shall make up His jewels, When the bright crowns of rejoicing arc won
Then shall His weary and faithful disciples All be remembered by what they have done

ELDER EMMANUEL NWACHUKWU NWOSU in Christ, go forth upon your journey in the name of God the father, who created you, in the name of Jesus Christ who suffered for you, in the name of the Holy Spirit who sanctifies you and may your rest be in peace and your dwelling place be in the paradise of the people of God. Amen. 18. HYMN A& M 527 (Withdrawal to the grave)

1. For all the saints who from their labour rest. Who thee by faith before the world confessed. Thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest. Alleluia

2. Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might; well-fought fight Thou, in the darkness, still their one true light. Alleluia

3. O may thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold. Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old, And win, with them, the victor's crown of gold. Alleluia

4. O blest communion, fellowship divine! We feebly struggle, they in glory shine; Yet all are one in thee, for all are thine Alleluia

5. And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long Steels on the ear the distant triumph song And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong. Alleluia

6. The golden evening brightness in the west; Soon, soon to faithful warrior comes their rest. Sweet is the calm of paradise the biest. Alleluia

7. But lo, there breaks a yet more glorious day The saints triumphant rise in bright array: The King of Glory passes on his way. Alleluia

8. From earth's wide bounds from ocean's farthest coast Through the gates of pearl streams in the countless host. Singing to Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia

20. GRAVE SIDE SENTENCES

Minister: Man that is born of a woman has but a short time to live and is full of misery He comes up and is cut down like a flower; he flees as it were a shadow. and never continues in one stay. In the midst of live we are in death of whom may we seek for succour, but of you O Lord?

Yet, O Lord, God most holy, O Lord most mighty, O holy and most merciful Saviour, deliver us not into the bitter pains of eternal death.

You know, Lord. the secret of our hearts. close not your merciful ears to our prayers, but spare us, Lord most holy, O God most mighty, O holy and merciful Saviour, you most worthy judge eternal, suffer us not, at our last hour for any pains of death, to fall from you.

21. AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Minister: All that the father gives me shall come to me.

All: And he that comes to me I will in no wise cast out.

Minister: He that raised up Jesus from the dead will also give life to our mortal body.

All: By the Spirit that dwells in us.

Minister: Is glad and my spirit rejoices

All: My flesh also shall rest in Hope.

Minister: You shall show me the path of life in your pleasures forever more.

All: And at your right hand there are pleasures forever more.

24. Hymns for filling the grave
SS&S 1028

1. On the resurrection morning,
Soul and body meet again
No more sorrow, no more weeping,
No more pain
2. Here a while they must be parted
And the flesh its Sabbath keep;
Awaiting in a holy stillness,
Wrapped in sleep
3. For a space the tired body
Waits in peace the morning's dawn
When there breaks the last and brightest
Easter morn
4. O that happy Easter morning All the graves their dead restore
Father, sister, child, and mother,
Meet once more.
5. Soul and body, reunited,
Thenceforth nothing shall divide;
Waking up in Christ's own
likeness, Satisfied
6. O! beauty, O! the gladness
Of that resurrection day,
Which shall not through endless ages
Pass away!
7. O that happy Easter morning All the graves their dead restore Father, sister, child, and mother, Meet once more.
8. To that brightest of all meetings
Bring us, Jesus Christ, at last By thy cross, through death and judgement, holding fast.
